2013 Whispering Angel

A tangy white with light strawberry jam and lemon character. Full and crisp with a cherry skin, clean finish. Always delicious. Drink now.

2013 Whispering Angel

A blend of Grenache, Rolle, Cinsault, Syrah and Tibouren (nope, I hadn't heard of it either but learned that it's a red grape notable for its earthy garrigue aromas), it has great character with lovely ripe, red fruit, plenty of acidity and a herbal, spicy finish.

Decanter

2013 Whispering Angel

Soft Pink colour. Nose herbal and refined: notes of jasmine and cherry. Chewy and mouthwatering. A white wine in style and good with food.

FOOD & WINE

2013 Whispering Angel

Whispering Angel somehow has achieved "cool thing you have to drink" status in places like the Hamptons (where people worry about status). To that I say, go figure. But social considerations aside, it's also impressively good, with a satiny texture, complex aroma and delicate cherry/berry flavors.

2013 Whispering Angel

Very pale; fragrant and mellow; dense and rich with lovely texture and a faint hint of toast; Grenache and Rolle.

This Provencal rosé offers aromatic strawberry blossom notes. Good balancing acidity and dry finish.
